

STARDROPS August 7, 2022

Going against the grain, defining your own way. Infusing confidence and love into who you are and what you do. The inspiration for this weeks' Stardrops is this message. Why not fully embrace the day, tackle each week, move forward on the rest of this year and beyond with strength, boldness and innovation. We're in uncharted waters so why not count on yourself rather than take a weak stance. Trust your ingenuity, your intelligence and that supreme mind which can bring to you the guidance you need for every thing, especially during times like these.

Why not take every part of your life and truly care how it goes, change what you don't like, one thing at a time, and believe you have the brilliance to be able to move through this challenging period of earth with an unconventional outlook, be different, yet still, somehow, maintaining your humor, your sense of being in control. Not only should we be living this, but leaders especially. Calling all who guide humanity, embrace being unique, different, in order to handle these times with more love and vision. Courage and transformation. These are Heart energies and gives us a bit more power towards excellence, joy, caring, yet taking it all very seriously as Saturn is also in this mix.

This is the theme that will challenge us to be more courageous to say, do and be who we really are, whether you are running a household, a business, have a simple routine of home/work/errands/ family or are a leader managing many, pull down and own your inner radiance. Look at this world , look at your loved ones, your job, home, service, city, nation as the most important place to conquer and infuse with wonderfulness.

This is not the time to cave in or shrink. Taking the people in your life to another level. by transmitting this confidence to them. This is where the Full Moon in Aquarius is taking us. As the Sun moves closer to an opposition to Saturn in Aquarius building up to the Full Moon on the 11th, what a great vision we're being given. Before we get to the Full Moon section of this article, (below) let's review our usual daily themes...

The Yonaguni Pyramid | Public Domain

Review of last week's Stardrops....

August 7 2022 Venus at 25° Pisces trine Neptune at 25° Pisces

This day is a soft beauty, love, kindness day for all. Plan on activities which involve a divine inspiration for loved ones, socializing, beautifying a place, artistic or musical wonderfulness, or simply a day out in the mountains or the beach. Something different, a get away today.

August 7 Mars at 22° Taurus square Saturn at 22° Aquarius

This square causes an increased determination to finish something, to cut through and get issues out of the way, however, the friends, the group, the company is pressing on their urgency for you to tackle something, yet it interferes with this ever so important thing you want to do. If there is a way to adjust and do both, or simplify one to make room for the other issue that you feel tug on you now, it would work eventually. Be aware of where you are going and navigate around frustrating situations. Watch for accidents and being too stressed.

August 9 Venus at 26° Cancer oppose Pluto at 26° Capricorn

One issue that you're trying to connect with another about might be delayed, or you're not happy with the connection. Avoid head on confrontations. We all need to take a deep breath and not become hopeless, extreme or fatalistic.

Simply get through the day, and start fresh tomorrow, as Venus oppose Pluto tends to trigger unconscious resistance towards being kind, supportive and diplomatic. Even if you are normally a friendly helpful person, this might be a day when you're tired of always being the hero. If not you? Possibly someone else is down and overwhelmed by life and needs your love and help.

August 9 Mercury at 8° Virgo inconjunct Jupiter at 8° Aries

Another inconjunct which means, a glitch between your obvious solution or approach to a task, your idea of how soon it should be handled and the actual situation. A bit of an overwhelm with this thing you expected to have resolved by now, and the reality? Not so easy. This day could create a disconnect, a break, incongruency between you and what should be an obvious straight path, but it's not.

August 10 Sun at 17 - 18* Leo square North/South Nodes and Uranus at 18* Taurus/Scorpio

Today the vitality of the Sun is symbolic of a person of authority in the world reminding us of some responsibility or decisions which must be made. Sometimes Nodes involve financial, political trends, what will impact the population. Ego conflicts, pushing ones' weight around are part of this day's energies, but especially, leadership challenges and some important decision made which could stress people, as the Sun in Leo is in a challenging unpopular place.

August 11 Venus enters Leo A time of drama, definitely more love and enjoying life, even if life is not always easy. Making time to give ourselves and those around us more love and care, generous and helpful like taking someone to the movies, making them dinner, or bringing them a gift, go for a drive to a magical destination, this is Venus in Leo. We have the pleasure of receiving her wonderful energies in Leo up to September 5.

August 11 Mars 24* Taurus sextile Neptune at 24* Pisces

August 1- 12 holds the power and energy for energetic meetings, collaborations, communication and spiritual psychologically helpful information. Analysis is spot on now. Sharing and connecting, helping others and others supporting you, it's all good, harmonious and feels uplifting. Today, a truce can be made, but only after a stunning realization of the alternative outcome if none is made.

August 14 Sun at 27* Leo oppose Saturn at 21* Aquarius

This day is a mini - culmination of what we have experienced so far from July 31 up to August 14th. It marks a time of stopping whatever it is you've been attempting to achieve, and sizing up how you are doing, how much have you accomplished, and assessing your life in some way. It's time to get real with yourself or others.

This also goes for leaders regarding their past goals and agendas, their previous course of action. Something halts them in their tracks on August 11 - 14th.

For the rest of us, we re-assess our goals, modify, re-align ourselves. Time to get out our calendars and organize the next month or so as things may have changed, and we are now able to get a crystal clear picture as to what we should do, when, and how to go about it.

August 13-15 Mars at 26° Taurus trine Pluto at 26° Capricorn

An intensely productive few days of managing to build a new functionality, new system, structure or order in your life. Very positive for employment, anything related to money and taking care of your physical world. It's easy to express your needs and expect others to value what you require. Expressing gratitude to the important people around you, empowering others builds your bond with your friends and loved ones.

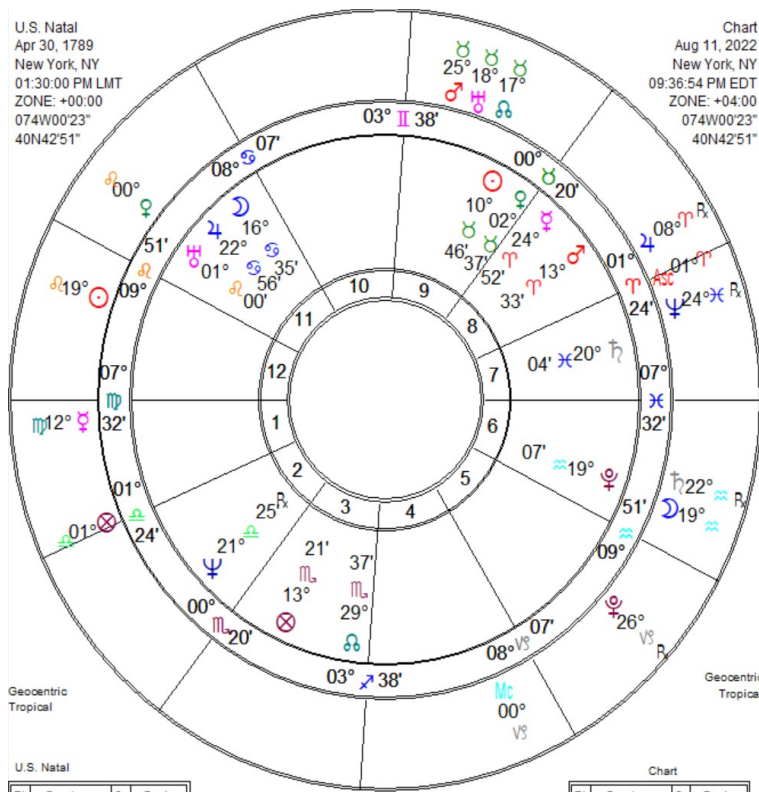

August 11 2022 Full Moon at 19° Aquarius conjoin Saturn at 22° Aquarius retro oppose Sun at 19° Leo and square Uranus, Mars and Node in Taurus.

The Full Moon makes a T-Square to the Mars/Uranus/Node conjunction. We can continue to expect unexpected challenges erupting globally. Let's take this August 11 Full Moon to another level in our own lives as we walk through these times fully ready to handle any issue. As all full moon's do, they expand and swell with a particular theme in play until it reaches its most maximum impact on the full moon date.

It's Good To Be Different - Now Is The Time For Creative Living!

Strange stories emerge, findings, discoveries with Aquarius involved. Unconventional revelations about our world can reveal stories that were not shared before about where we are living, how things are. As we take on this next dimension of empowerment with the Sun in Leo, as it is also oppose Saturn with the Moon, there is a serious side to this boldness we're moving into. When Saturn is involved, our next step of higher evolution is inevitable. In other words, it's going to push us to adopt a serious stance about this path we're walking and we might have to push through some internal resistance to it. Saturn brings the accountability and discipline into the picture.

With these planetary positions lining up in the U.S. 6th house Natal 1789 chart, conjoin U.S. Pluto in Aquarius, U.S. will also be facing a similar test in areas of Aquarius/Leo confidence, innovation, authority, leadership, transparency and honesty, massive transformation – 6th house deals with our every day routines, mental/physical and emotional health, our justice, public servants, the military and more. It is a Virgo house handling all basic services and their functionality – but with Pluto sitting there, along with the Uranus/Mars square, an alert posture for our military can't be ignored. Also, with the Moon/Sun axis pointing to absolute truth and transparency planets Uranus/Mars/Node, a conflict is intensifying between social manipulation versus absolute science, truths and facts flooding through the population. Things just are not matching up and people want to know what is going on with that.

The Full Moon in Aquarius conjoin Saturn re-commits people to the causes related to Aquarius' freedom and individuality, progressive future innovation in order to thrive. It's just a little Full Moon, but because Saturn is involved, serious focus upon something unconventional is in the works from those in power – as if trying to contain it. I think it goes beyond what we've been shown in the news. That would be Uranus/Aquarius sort of theme.

How will the world react to this exposure of unconventional issues coming out which requires courage, true leadership and strong response? In order to provide higher forms of fairness and truth, transformation of our ways of life, courage will be needed, true leadership. It will be interesting to watch. I know of several key pieces of information which have spilled out recently that fit this cycle...will it be that one more reveal of something that is now emerging helps Aquarian humanity to unify toward higher standards, love and integrity, individual sovereignty and respect for each persons' rights and freedoms? I think so. We're entering some new information. It's coming for sure.

APPOINTMENTS

Receive Starfires Newsletters

sirius@starfires.com

www.starfires.com

Today's Video

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=k_uuDm-x6mg&t=1720s